

Organising a Funeral?

TAKE YOUR TIME

there's no rush (except for some religions)

TAKE CHARGE

don't pay others to do what you can do for yourself.

ASK A FRIEND

to help keep you on track, especially if you've never done this before

KNOW YOUR BUDGET & SHOP AROUND

you can save £1000 or more

IT'S OKAY TO ASK OTHERS TO CHIP IN

towards the cost

FOCUS ON THE FUNERAL

it's about what you say and do, not how much you spend

WHAT DO YOU WANT THE FUNERAL TO ACHIEVE?

set your goals – you have just one chance to get it right

DO IT YOUR WAY

the way you feel it ought to be done

DO WHAT YOU CAN

playing your part, however big or small, is vital

IT'S NOT ABOUT MONEY

it's about meaning

NON-RELIGIOUS OR SEMI-RELIGIOUS?

find someone to help create the funeral at www.funeralcelebrants.org.uk

USE THE INTERNET

for info, ideas, goods and services

WHEN ALL'S SAID AND DONE

you'll be able to look back forever with pride

The law does not require you to use a funeral director, nor does it require you to hold a funeral service
